

CLASS- 5
SUBJECT- ENGLISH LITERATURE
TOPIC- CHARLIE AND THE CHOCOLATE FACTORY- PART 2

ANSWER KEY

1) Give one word answer:

- a) Graceful
- b) Delectable
- c) Grinning
- d) Bewildered
- e) Starved

2) Reference to context:

- a) Mr. Wonka said these words to the children.
- b) The trees and bushes are all made of mint toffee.
- c) The listeners were standing on the grass which was made of a new kind of soft, vanilla and peppermint sugar. The speaker called it swudge.

3) Answer these questions:

- a) Graceful trees, bushes and flowers grew along the river banks.
- b) Every drop of the great brown river was made up of hot melted chocolate of the finest quality.
- c) Charlie looked starved to death because they did not have enough food to eat at home.

1 A (pg 56)- wordsearch

- Flabbergasted
- Absolutely
- Bewildered
- Stagger
- Delectable
- Dazzled
- Graceful

1 B (pg 56)- make sentences:

- Automatically- The child automatically removed his hand when he touched the hot iron.
- Dumbfounded- I was too dumbfounded to respond when I heard my friend was leaving school.
- Glided- The small girl glided away into the crowd and was lost.
- Grinning- My little brother was grinning proudly after winning the race.
- Stunning- My parents gifted me a stunning pair of diamond earrings.

3 B (pg 57)- describe each of the following with words from the story:

- a) Lovely
- b) Tall, pink, red, mauve
- c) Mint toffee
- d) Bony, old
- e) Creamiest, loveliest

3 C (pg 57)- reference to context

a) Mr. Wonka spoke these words to the children.

b) 'It' is a pink boat with stripes all over it and it is made by hollowing out an enormous boiled sweet.

c) Mr. Wonka along with Charlie and Grandpa Joe got into it.

d) The speaker suddenly reached down into the bottom part of the boat and picked up a large blue mug, dipped it into the river, filled it with chocolate and gave it to little Charlie to drink. He said kindly to Charlie to drink it as it would do him good because he looked starved to death.

e) Charlie put the mug to his lips and as the rich, warm, creamy chocolate ran down his parched throat into his empty tummy, his whole body, from head to toe, began to tingle with pleasure. An intense happiness spread over him.

-----X-----