

CLASS : 3

SUBJECT : COMPUTER SCIENCE

TOPIC : AN INTRODUCTION TO THE INTERNET

WORKSHEET

SYNOPSIS:

- Computers that are connected form a network.
- A huge network of computer networks is called the Internet.
- The word 'Internet' stands for Interconnected Network.
- The Internet can be used to search for information, to send emails, for voice and video chatting, for online education, to book tickets, to pay bills, to watch videos and news and to shop online.
- Some basic terms related to the Internet are web page, website, World Wide Web, URL, Home page, Hyperlink, Web browser and Search engine.
- The World Wide Web (WWW) is a huge of collection of websites. It is popularly known as the Web.
- URL stands for Uniform Resource Locator. Each website has a unique Internet address called URL.
- Some of the popular web browsers are Internet Explorer, Google Chrome, Mozilla Firefox and Opera.
- Some popular search engines are Google, Bing, Yahoo Search and Ask.

I. Fill in the blanks:

- a) The World Wide Web is popularly known as the _____.
- b) A type of software used to view the contents of websites is known as a _____.
- c) Moving from one website to another is known as _____.
- d) The first page of a website is called its _____.
- e) A _____ engine has a search box for you to type in.
- f) URL stands for _____.

II. State whether the following statements are True or False:

- a) A hyperlink is a highlighted word.
- b) The World Wide Web was developed in 1989.
- c) Opera is an example of web browser.
- d) A URL is an Internet address of a website.
- e) A collection of related web pages is known as home page.

III. Draw, label and color the four web browsers.

IV. Complete the following exercise at the end of the chapter:

- a) Exercise E (Question nos. 1 to 4) on Page No. 56.
