TOPIC- CHARLIE AND THE CHOCOLATE FACTORY- PART 2

SYNOPSIS

The second part of the chapter “Charlie and the Chocolate Factory” find Mr. Wonka proudly leading the five lucky winners and Grandpa Joe into the most important and extraordinary Chocolate Room. The children are flabbergasted to see that the room is actually a vast valley of beautiful green meadows covered with graceful trees and flowers made of eatable toffee and peppermint. A river of hot delicious chocolate flows between the meadows. Mr. Wonka takes them on a boat ride down this river of chocolate in a pink boat carved out of an enormous sweet. Mr. Wonka feeds Charlie and Grandpa Joe hot chocolate directly from the river. This stunning dreamlike sequence leaves the children speechless.
