

WELLAND GOULDSMITH SCHOOL

CLASS : 5

SUBJECT : ENGLISH LITERATURE

TOPIC : CHARLIE AND THE CHOCOLATE FACTORY

ANSWER KEY

A1. FILL IN THE BLANKS :

- a. Rooms , garden.
- b. Gates.
- c. Tall , bony , Joe.
- d. Dear , see.
- e. Shoulder , gates.

A 2. GIVE ONE WORD ANSWERS :

- a. Enormous
- b. Rust
- c..Tremendous
- d. Creaking
- e. Dawdle

A 3. MAKE SENTENCES :

- a. Marvelous - Dogs have a marvelous sense of smell.
- b. Disappeared - As soon as the magician put on the magic ring the rabbit disappeared.
- c. Overjoyed - The children were overjoyed at the thought of going to the seaside.
- d. Gigantic - Leena gasped at the gigantic hills behind the city.
- e. Melodious - As we entered the hall,the melodious tones of a choir sweetly filled the air.

A 4. COMPLETE THE FOLLOWING SENTENCES:

- a. Somewhere in the distance a church clock began striking ten.
- b. In one hand,he carried a fine gold – tipped walking cane.
- c. The crowd went wild once again,shouting and pointing out to the children.
- d. All the most important rooms of my factory are deep down below the surface.
- e. The lighting was soft and pleasant.

A5a. The five children had become famous as they were the lucky winners of the contest.They would get to tour the magical and mysterious factory and also receive a free life - time's supply of chocolates.

b. Mr.Wonka was an extraordinary small man with a black pointed beard . He was full of life . He was dressed in a tail coat that was made of red velvet,bottle green trousers,pearly grey gloves and a back top hat.In his hand he held a fine gold - tipped walking cane.

c. Mr. Wonka welcomed Charlie and Grandpa Joe very warmly . He took Charlie 's hand and pumped it up and down with affection.He told them that he was very delighted to see them.

A6. REFERENCE TO CONTEXT:

- a. Mr.Wonka , the owner of the chocolate factory is the speaker.
- b. The speaker did a skipping dance.He then spread his arms wide and with a smile in a high , melodious voice, warmly welcomed his little friends.
- c. The most important rooms of the factory were underground as they were larger than football fields.No building in the world would be big enough to house the factory.

PAGE 49 – 1 A

- a. Dawdle
- b. Enormous
- c. Melodious
- d. Pumped
- e. Terrific

PAGE 49 – 2 A

- a. The crowd – was noisy , eager and full of excitement.
- b. Grandpa Joe – He was a tall , bony and old man.
- c. Mr.Wonka’s eyes – They were bright and twinkling,alight with fun and laughter.
- d. Mr.Wonka’s cane – It was a fine gold - tipped walking cane.
- e. The corridor – was long with pale pink walls and lighting that was soft and pleasant.

PAGE 50 NO . 3

- a. Mr.Wonka was the most extraordinary chocolate maker in the world.
- b. The iron gates of the factory opened slowly.
- c. Mr.Wonka had a small goatee beard.
- d. The sloping passages led in every direction.
- e. The door to the Chocolate Room was of metal.

