WORKSHEET

--- SYNOPSIS ---

Once Upon a time there was a Miller , who had a very beautiful daughter the Miller was very proud of his daughter and loved her very much. One day the Miller had an interview with the King and he told the King that his daughter could spin straw into gold the next day the King soldiers surrounded the Millers cottage and told him that they came to take his daughter to the Kings Palace.

When the girl was brought to the King he led her into a room full of straw and gave her a spinning wheel and asked her to start work . The King said that she should spin all the straw into gold by the morning. If you don't you will die then the King shut the door behind him and let her alone inside.

The girl had no idea how to spin straw into gold so she sat down and started crying just then the door opened and a very short and ugly man stepped in . He wished her Good afternoon and asked her why she was crying the girl answered that she had no idea how to spin straw in Gold. The dwarf said what will you give me if I spin it for you?

The girl gave the dwarf her necklace and he started spinning the wheel till dawn All the straw had been turned into gold the next morning the young King entered the room and he was very happy and surprised to see all the gold and he got more greedy so he put the Millers daughter into another room full of straw and told her to spin all the straw into gold before the sunrise.

The Millers daughter was hungry and thirsty and started to cry once again the door open and the dwarf entered the room. This time the girl offered the dwarf her ring and he sat down and spun all the straw into gold. The King was very happy to see the gold once again he gave her another room full of straw to spin and the King told her if she could spin the straw into gold she would be his wife this time

The Millers daughter did not have anything to offer the dwarf so the dwarf said give me your first child when you become a Queen .The Millers daughter agreed to the dwarf . Once again the dwarf set to work , and all the straw had been turned into shining gold, the King was very happy
