

Welland Gouldsmith School

Subject:English Literature

Class:4

Topic:Revision Work(Chapter 1,2,3,4)

Answer Key

1.Fill in the blanks:

- a)twitched
- b)trunk
- c)Amara,anger
- d)ignorant,tides
- e)kingdom,west

2.Reference to Context:

a)Hah!Why is wild dog here?

ans I: Man is the speaker

ansII:The line has been taken from the story Friends and Companions.

ansIII: The new name given to wild dog was First Friend.

b)" The crocodile gave it to me after I asked made a ringing him what he had for dinner."

ansI:This line has been taken from the chapter The Elephant's Child.

ansII:The author is Rudyard Kipling.

ansIII:The Elephant's Child received his new long nose.

3.Give the meanings of the following words:

- a) aroma-pleasant smell
- b) pachyderm-elephant
- c) canoe-a narrow shallow boat with pointed ends.
- d) aid-help
- e) bliss-perfect happiness
- f) gnawed-chewed
- g) pounds-unit of weight.
- h) jangled-made a ringing sound.

4.Make Sentences

5.Name Them:

- a) Limpopo
- b) Old Amara
- c) The Elephant's Child
- d) Wild dog

6. Answer the following questions:

ans a: When a woman took the shoulder bone of the half-eaten wild sheep, the big fat blade bone, she threw it into the fire and she made a magic. This was the first singing magic of the world.

ans b: The Elephant's Child, being curious in nature, he asked the kolokolo bird what the crocodile had for dinner.

ans c: Amara stopped several times for rest as she was thin, weak, and old.

ans d: As Amara's feet touched the sand, the cold water lapped at her dusty feet.

ans e: To wake up the Princess, the Prince did several things: he whistled into her ears, he screamed a loud song, he jangled a tambourine, he banged a gong near her ear, and finally he held her nose and pressed it.

ans f: A wicked witch zoomed into the ballroom.