

CLASS – 3

SUBJECT – ENGLISH LITERATURE

TOPIC – THE CAMEL AND THE JACKAL

A clever jackal and a camel were good friends. One day they decided to go to a sugar-cane field. They had to cross a river and so the camel swam with the jackal on his back. On arriving at the field, they went to have their meals. After eating his meal, the jackal began to howl and yelp. The villagers heard him and came out of their homes with sticks to beat him, but instead they found a camel and began to beat him up, while the cunning jackal hid and watched. The camel knew that because of the jackal he got a beating and decided to teach him a lesson. On the way home, while they were crossing the river, the camel said that he wanted to roll over in the water, as it was his habit. So he rolled over dropping the frightened jackal into the water. The jackal could not swim and so he drowned in the river while the camel swam safely to the shore.

QUESTION 1:

Make Sentences:

1. Jackal –
2. River –
3. Friend –
4. Plants –
5. Dinner –

QUESTION 2:

Write the missing letters:

1. S _ i _ k _
2. C _ n _ i _ g
3. P _ _ r
4. S _ a _
5. A _ h _ r _

QUESTION 3:

Fill in the blanks:

1. Fables _____ and _____ are stories that have been coming down from generations to _____.
2. When they reached the _____ field the camel _____ across to eat the sugar cane.
3. A friend in _____ is a friend in _____.
4. The angry _____ chased the camel towards the river and left him there half _____.
5. It's my _____ to always have a little roll after a _____.

QUESTION 4:

Assignment – Pgs 46 to 48 exercises – A, B, C, 2, 3, 4, A, B, and 5