

WELLAND GOULDSMITH SCHOOL

CLASS-2

SUBJECT-RECITATION( WORKSHEET)

POEM-SIX LITTLE MICE SAT DOWN TO SPIN

SYNOPSIS

In this poem the poet is telling us about six little mice who are ready to spin a coat for a gentleman. Just then a pussy passes by and peeps into the room and offers to help those six little mice but they refuse to take help from the pussy. Hence we learn that vanity can lead to dangerous situations and that not all compliments are sincere but they may have ulterior motives.

WORKSHEET

Q1.MEANINGS-

1.spin

2.peeped

3.weaving

4.threads

Q2.ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTIONS.

1.What were the mice doing?

2.Why didn't they let pussy come in?