Dear Piyush,

I am too excited to tell you about the unusual pet I have just received. I was shocked to find my uncle at the door last week, with a baby monkey cradled in his arms. The baby was injured as it was hit by some vehicle and was lying on the road. My uncle was filled with compassion seeing how painfully the monkey was lying on the road. He immediately rushed it to the vet and then brought it home.

I am trying my best to nurse the baby monkey back to health. It is so much like a human being and surprisingly, very understanding. It is not at all mischievous. I am feeding it with milk through a bottle. I have named it Oreo. Oreo enjoys the Bananas which I am giving occasionally. It's wound has to be cleaned and bandaged everyday. Despite the pain, Oreo is very playful. I intend to keep Oreo with me as long as possible but once it grows up, it will be difficult to keep it in the house.

I hope all is well at your end. Please convey my kind regards to aunt and uncle. I shall send a few photographs of Oreo as soon as his wounds heal up. Looking forward for your reply.

With love and best wishes,

Yours lovingly,

Rohit
