

1. Answer the following questions.
 - a) Animals that carry our loads are called Beasts of Burden. For example horse, camel and ox.
 - b) Animals that give us milk are called milch animals. For example cow, goat and buffalo.
 - c) Animals that are useful to us and we keep as pets are called domestic animals.
 - d) The animal that gives us wool is sheep.
 - e) Honeybees make honey from the nectar of flowers, and store it in their hives.

2. Underline the correct answer.
 - a) Some animals carry our loads. They are called Milch Animals / Beasts of Burden.
 - b) We get wool from sheep / silkworms.
 - c) Honey is made from the nectar of flowers / vegetables.
 - d) We get silk / wool from silkworms.
 - e) Dogs / birds give us eggs.

3. The children must draw and colour on their own.

- Answers for Exercises B, C, D and E from the text book. (Pages 25 and 26)

B. Name any two animals which:

1. Cow, Buffalo
2. Hen, Duck
3. Goat, Sheep
4. Camel, Goat
5. Horse, Ox

C. Fill in the blanks:

1. Meat
2. Silk
3. Dog
4. Horses
5. Plough

D. Match the animals with what we get from them:

1. Sheep - Wool
2. Silkworm - Silk
3. Hen - Eggs
4. Cow - Milk
5. Camel - Leather

E. Tick (✓) the true and cross (✗) the false statement:

1. ✓
2. ✗
3. ✓
4. ✓
5. ✗