

Class-4
Subject-Science
Answer key

Do all the written work in your science exercise book.

1. Define the following.

- a. Aerial animals-animal that live mostly in the air are called aerial animals.
- b. Amphibians-animals that spend a part of their lives in water and a part on land are called amphibians.
- c. Parasites-parasites are the small animals that live on or inside the bodies of other animals.
- d. Omnivores-those animals that eat both plants, their product and the flesh of other animals.
- e. The light,spongy plants that flowed freely on the surface of the water is called floating plants.

2. Fill in the blanks.

- a. Skin, less
- b. Limbs , direction.
- c. Plants ,aquatic.
- d. Venus, pitcher
- e. Plants, essential

3. Answer the following questions.

- a. Two uses of grass plants are -Some grass plants have medicinal value and grass plants also used to conserve soil.
- b. Two ways that can save animals from being eaten by other animal are -To move fast and to merge with the surrounding.
- c. the process by which the green plants prepare their food in the presence of sunlight by absorbing water from the soil and carbon dioxide from the atmosphere is called photosynthesis.