

tasWelland Gouldsmith School
Computer revision answer key
Class : 3

Q1. Answer the following questions:

- a) Sorting desktop icons means putting them in order to name, size, item type or date modified.
- b) Small pictures on the desktop are called icons. They stand for a file, folder or software.
- c) The CPU is the processing device that controls all the functions of a computer.
- d) IPO stands for Input Process Output. The computer receives the data which is input that is processed and then displayed which is output.

Q2. Fill in the blanks:

- a) operating    system    memory
- b) background    desktop
- c) tasks    mouse
- d) software    hardware
- e) Microsoft    Windows
- f) memory    ALU

Q3. Give the meanings for the following:

- a) the long bar at the bottom of the desktop
- b) a still or moving picture that appears when the computer is kept idle for some time
- c) a set of instructions to do a particular task
- d) the control unit that controls the working of different parts of a computer

Q4. Match the following

- ans.    (c)
          (d)
          (a)
          (b)
          (f)
          (g)
          (e)

Q5. Name them:

- a) keyboard, monitor, printer
- b) screen, remote, set-top box
- c) dragging
- d) Start Menu
- e) Pop-up menu

Q6. Choose the correct answer:

- a) i) click on it
- b) i) date modified

- c) ii) software
- d) ii) CPU
- e) ii) data and result

*****