

Welland Gouldsmith School
Computer Worksheet - 1
Class III

An introduction to the Internet (Pgs 44 – 49)

- The Internet is a huge global network of connected computers.
- Emails are messages that are sent and received through the internet.
- A web page is a page on the internet containing text, pictures moving images and videos.
- A URL is an internet address of a website.
- A home page is the first page of a website.
- The World Wide Web is a huge collection of websites.
- A hyperlink takes you to a new web page when it is clicked.
- A web browser is the software used to view the contents of a web page.

(Work to be done in Computer exercise book)

A) Name them.

- 1) It is like a book that has many pages in it. _____
- 2) Each website has a unique internet address. _____
- 3) A highlighted word or image on a web page. _____
- 4) The first web browser that was developed. _____
- 5) To go through the content of something. _____

B) True and False.

- 1) People use internet to study online. _____
- 2) All computers in the world cannot be connected. _____
- 3) The word Internet stands for Interconnected network. _____
- 4) Internet Explorer is a web browser. _____
- 5) The World Wide Web was developed in 1998. _____

C) Answer the following questions.

- 1) What is Internet?
- 2) What is a web browser used for?
- 3) What is the difference between a web page and a website?
- 4) Write three uses of the internet?