TOPIC - CHARLIE AND THE CHOCOLATE FACTORY PART 1

Charlie and the chocolate factory is a story about Mr Willy Wonka who owns a magical and mysterious chocolate factory. He is one of the best at making candy, but he wants to retire as he was getting old and was looking for the right person to take his place. There was a boy named Charlie Bucket who belonged to a very poor family. They did not have enough money to buy food, warm clothes or even candy. One night Charlie had a dream of making a chocolate bar just like his father, grandfather and grandmother used to. One day Mr. Wonka announced that he had hidden five golden invitations or tickets inside the Wonka chocolate bars and the five lucky people who find the golden tickets will get a tour of the chocolate factory and a lifetime supply of chocolates. Charlie was one of the lucky winners as he found some money and bought the last chocolate bar which had the fifth golden ticket. The next day all the winners were waiting at the gate and Mr. Wonka greeted everyone by saying, "My little friends, welcome to the factory." His voice was high and melodious. He asked the winners to come forward one at a time as he called. All the children started following Mr Wonka till they stopped in front of a metal door which had large letters that said "THE CHOCOLATE ROOM."
