

Class 4 Geography Answer Key
Topic: Rivers of India

1) Define :-

- a) The place where a river meets a sea or an ocean without forming a delta at its mouth.
- b) Rivers that carry water throughout the year.
- c) Rivers that do not carry water throughout the year.

2) Fill in the blanks.

- a) Important, freshwater
- b) Mahanadi, Eastern
- c) Hugli
- d) Zaskar, tributary

3) Match the column.

A                      B

- a) Bhagirathi      Gangotri Glacier
- b) Yamuna        Uttarakhand
- c) Indus            Tibet
- d) Yamuna        Bangladesh
- e) Krishna        Maharashtra

4) Answer the following questions.

Refer to the text book My Big Book of Social Studies page 94 Exercise C number 1,3,4 and 5.

1) The names of two types of rivers on the basis of their origin are Himalayan rivers and Peninsular rivers.

3) When the main river splits into branches. These branches are called distributaries. The names of two distributaries of river Ganga are Padma and Hugli.

4) The names of peninsular rivers are Godavari Krishna Kaveri Narmada and Mahanadi.

5) The river Krishna originates from the Western Ghats in Maharashtra. It drains into the Bay of Bengal.