

Class 4 History Worksheet
Topic: Our Modes of transport

Synopsis:

- Our country has the largest network of roads in the world
- Roads which connects cities to each other are called the National Highways.
- India's railway system is the largest in Asia.
- We have 17 international airports
- Mumbai is the largest seaport of the country.

Please do the following exercises in your school exercise book.

1) Define:-

a) Freeways b) Metro c) National Highway

2) Fill in the blanks.

a) The state of _____ has many inland waterways in its _____ .

b) Our country has the _____ network of roads in the _____ .

c) The _____ quadrilateral connecting the _____ metropolitan cities.

d) _____ waterways include large ships for _____ in oceans and seas.

3) Name them:

a) Any two important Airlines of our country.

b) Any two major international airports.

c) Two types of water transport.

4) Answer the following questions.

Refer to the textbook, Interactive Social Studies Page 128 Exercise D number 3,4 and 5.

6) List any two advantages of road transport.

-----XXXX----