

Welland Gouldsmith School
Subject-Geography
Class-4
Evaluation worksheet

1. Define the following:

- a. Northern hemisphere
- b. Peninsula
- c. Equator
- d. Plateau
- e. isthmus

2. Name the following:

- a. Europe and Asia are together called_____.
- b. Very large water bodies_____.
- c. The imaginary line which passes through the centre of the earth_____.
- d. The end points of the axis_____.
- e. The seventh largest country in the world_____.

3. Fill in the blanks:

- a. India is the land of mountains,_____, plains, deserts and_____.
- b. India is located in the _____.
- c. Venus _____so slowly that it completes one rotation in about_____ days.
- d. The earth_____along a fixed path called_____.
- e. Mount _____is the _____peak in the world.

4. Write True or False:

- a. The domain that has land is called Hydrosphere.
- b. Microbes are found in the biosphere.
- c. Greenland is in the Atlantic Ocean.
- d. Nicholas Copernicus said that the Earth moves around the sun.
- e. Rotation causes seasons.
- f. The endpoint on the top is called South pole.
- g. India is the second most populated country in the world.
- h. India is divided into five physical divisions.
- i. The width of India decreases as we move towards the south.
- j. Venus completes one revolution in about 225 days.

5. Answer the following questions:

- a. What is rotation? What does it cause?
- b. What is revolution? How long does the Earth take to complete one revolution?
- c. Write the names of all the oceans.
- d. Name the four domains of the Earth.
- e. Which part of India is shaped like a crown?

- f. Which sea lies to the east of India?
- g. Which part of India is Peninsula?