

WELLAND GOULDSMITH SCHOOL

HISTORY WORKSHEET

CLASS – 3

WE ARE EQUAL

- All of us are different. We make different choices.
- Long ago, girls were not allowed to go to schools, participate in sports or go out to work.
- Times have changed. Today, there are many co-educational schools.
- Many girls now a days are successful sportspersons, lawyers, police officers and so on.
- Today women and men make different career choices.

To be done in the exercise book.

Q1. Answer the following questions:

- a) What is a co-educational school?
- b) How can girls and boys respect each other in school?
- c) Why were some sports regarded as 'games fit for boys'?
- d) Who were called the 'breadwinners'? And why were they called so?
- e) Mention any three rules which a student must follow in the classroom?

Q2. Name them:

- a) 3 games that were called 'fit for boys'.
- b) 3 women sportsperson.
- c) 3 careers regarded as 'fit for women.'