

Welland Gouldsmith School
General Science worksheet
The Human Body
Class 3

The human body is made up of systems, organs, tissues and cells. Different parts of the body have different functions. The sense organs send messages to the brain. Organs inside our body group together to form systems that carry out different functions like digestion, breathing, circulation, excretion, movement, reproduction and sending messages. It works like a machine.

A. Answer the following questions:

- a) Name the five sense organs.
- b) What gives shape to our body?
- c) What is the work of the breathing system?
- d) What is the function of the digestive system?
- e) What is the function of the brain?

B. Fill in the blanks:

- a) A _____ is made-up of many organs.
- b) There are five _____ organs.
- c) The _____ system controls our action.
- d) Different systems together make it possible for the body to _____ .
- e) The _____ is the control centre of the body.

C. Match the following:

- | A | B |
|------------|--------------------|
| 1) Brain | a. throw out water |
| 2) Stomach | b. skeleton system |
| 3) Kidneys | c. controls action |
| 4) Bones | d. pumps blood |
| 5) Heart | e. digestion |

D. State whether the following statement are true or false:

- a) The human body works very much like a machine.
- b) Breathing system makes us breathe through our mouth.
- c) The skin does not feel pain when cut with a knife.
- d) Brain controls all our actions.
- e) We should wear loose clothes.
