SHELLY'S RED SHOES

Shelly lived in a little cottage near the sea. Her father was a fisherman.

One day, Shelly sat in her father's little yellow boat with her feet dangling in the water.

She was watching the ships and boats go sailing by. Shelly told her father that she wished to have a pair of red shoes. Her father had to catch fish and time was short so she stepped out of the boat to wish her father goodbye and told him to bring a pink sea shell for her.

Shelly returns home. Her mother was bathing little Sheldon. Shelly could smell the delicious chicken stew and bread baking in the oven. She laid two plates, a dish and two glasses on the table.

Shelly had finished her homework and was about to switch off the lights when her father entered the room with a pair of red, shiny shoes with two, tiny silver bows on them. Shelly was very happy. She said thank you and ran to hug him.
