

WELLAND GOULDSMITH SCHOOL
ENGLISH LITERATURE WORKSHEET
CLASS – 3
THE CROCODILE

This is a poem written by Roald Dahl about a wicked crocodile whose name was Crocky-Wock. Crocky-Wock enjoyed eating six children for lunch every Saturday, three boys with mustard and three girls with butterscotch and caramel. Just when the poet and the listener was about to go to bed they encounter the crocodile who looked at them with shining teeth and a greedy smile.

To be done in the exercise book.

Q1. Learn and write the poem.

Q2. Learn and write the meanings from the text book.