SUBJECT- ENGLISH LITERATURE

THE PRINCES OF HASTINAPUR.

It was playtime for hundred Kaurava princes and their five Pandava brothers.

Bheeshma their granduncle was sitting in his garden. He was smiling as he heard the sound of running feet as they were rushing out of the palace laughing and shouting. It was the rainy season. The boys were flying kites.

Bhima wanted to show off how strong he was so he climbed a mango tree laden with the golden fruit. He had once fallen from a great height. The rock had broken into pieces but Bhima was not hurt. Dushasana made fun of him swinging upon one of the branches of the tree. Bhima looked at him and shook the tree so hard that not only the mangoes, but all the three cousins came tumbling down as well.

Dushasana screamed with anger and chased Bhima down the garden path. Bheeshma stood up and went to settle the quarrel.
