

Welland Gouldsmith School Patuli

English literature worksheet

Class II

Ch 8. FOR OUR OWN GOOD

The Kingdom of Gajapuram had a minister who had just one answer for everything good or bad that took place..... 'everything is for our own good'. Once an incident took place and the King got furious with the minister for answering in such a manner. The minister was put in prison. Later the King realised his mistake and bowed down before the minister's wisdom and released him from the prison.

- I. Write the new work on pg 48.
- II. State true or false
 1. Everyone made fun of the minister.
 2. One day the king cut his thumb.
 3. The lion injured the king.
 4. The king rushed to the prison and freed the minister.
 5. The king bowed to the minister's wisdom.
- III. Place the following lines one below the other in the correct order according to the story.
 1. A huge lion came close to the King.

 2. The King was very much impressed with the minister's wisdom.

 3. One day the King cut his middle finger which bled terribly.

 4. I would surely have gone hunting with you.

 5. He got up and rode back home, in deep thought.

I V. Do exercise 4 pg 50 in your exercise book.

All the given work to be done neatly in the school exercise book.