CLASS 6

TOPIC : PRONOUNS

SYNOPSIS

A Pronoun is used in place of a Noun or a phrase that contains a Noun.

Pronouns are of 8 kinds :

1. Personal Pronouns are the pronouns that are associated primarily with a particular person.
Eg: I, we, her, them, etc.
2. Demonstrative Pronouns are words that are used to indicate or point at something or someone. Eg : This, that, these, those, etc.
3. Possessive Pronouns indicate possession or belonging. Eg : Mine, hers, yours, his, etc.
4. Interrogative Pronouns are those that are used to ask questions. Eg : What, who, which, whom, etc.
5. Emphatic Pronouns refers back to another Noun or Pronoun in the sentence to emphasize it. Eg : Herself, itself, themselves, ourselves, etc.
6. Reflective Pronouns are pronouns that are used when the subject and the object are the same. They are always used as an object to a verb or a preposition. Eg : Himself, myself, etc.
7. Reciprocal Pronouns are used to show that an action or a feeling is reciprocated. Eg : Each other, one another, etc.
8. Indefinite Pronouns are those which do not refer to any specific person, thing or amount.
Eg : Everybody, someone, no one, anywhere, etc.
