

Synopsis

Human activities means all activities undertaken by human beings.

Classification of human activities-Economic activities to earn money and Non-economic activities for inner satisfaction. Distinction between economic and non-economic activities.

Types of economic activities are business means production and exchange of goods and services to earn profit, profession means rendering personalised services in exchange of fees and employment wherein people work for others and receive salary.

Distinction between business, profession and employment.

Worksheet

Short Questions :

1. What is meant by human activities ? Give one example.
2. What is the objective of economic activities ?
3. Classify the following into business, profession and employment.
  - (i) A dentist working in Mercy hospital.
  - (ii) Sunil Mittal the Chairman of Bharti Airtel.
  - (iii) A lawyer practising in Delhi High Court.

Long Questions :

1. Give five distinction between commercial activities and non-commercial activities.
2. Explain the features of profession.

Exercises :

1. Name the two types of human activities.
2. Discuss the main characteristics of human activities.